

NATALIA

Storm in a cup
Turbulent winds
My love is drowning
Her tail in a spin
Fears for the worst
Secretly hopes for the best

Can't seem to ever remember my dreams
Disjointed deductions
In search of a theme
Notebook still blank
Only one thought echoes on

Natalia still on my mind
Natalia still on my mind

Never say never
Says voice in my head
Timing is everything
Just like she said
Breath on my nape
Both drifting into a dream

Natalia still on my mind
Natalia still on my mind
